Use of Technologies for the Delivery of Clinical Social Work Services

May 7, 1999

9 – 1:30 pm.

1 Washington Square North
New York, New York

sponsored by

New York University
Ehrenkranz School of Social Work &
the Council on Social Work Education

The plenary speakers are Dr. Maeda Galinsky [Expanding the Horizons of Social Work Services: Technology-Based Groups] from the University of North Carolina @ Chapel Hill and Dr. Jerry Finn [Social Work on the Superhighway: Issues and Trends in Online Practice] from the University of New Hampshire. These presentations in Room 112 will be followed by poster sessions done by NYU graduate students and breakout sessions.

This conference was developed by Dr. Martha Gabriel and Dr. Gary Holden as an outgrowth of a course that they are currently teaching in this area. The goal of the conference is to engage the practice community in a discussion of the potential uses of these technologies in agencies.
